A.C.R.

Inspection 12

Acting unsuspiciously, I made you my greatest dream.
No need to worry.
Midnight stalker in the midst didn't mean to make you pissed.
You're all I wanted.
Now you know me well.
Didn't mean to make me bleed. Things are not the way they seem.
Suicide'll kill ya.
Thinking pathologically: All is safe except for me.
I'm antagonistic.
They won't find out what I've done. They'll all think I'm having fun.
If they find out what I did, mercy me. Heaven forbid!
I'll never speak to you again.
Now I know you well.
