This I Swear

Sam Milby

Bring all those years back
Oh, what a change
With the mind of a child learning
Not one disgrace
And I know that the world eyes
Would leave it alone
And I want it to be so different
This I swear
My honesty's holding me back
I can be the one
That I've been running from
Take advantage
Psyche myself up so I can
I can be the that I've been running from
All people are free falling
And some hit the floor some re-defy gravity but they're still wanting more
And I know that the world eyes

Would leave it alone
And I want it to be so different
This I swear
My honesty's holding me back
I can be the one
That I've been running from
Take advantage
Psyche myself up so I can
I can be the that I've been running from
It's just a part of my imagination
The only damage I can depend on Want it to be heard all across the nation
Believe in me
No, I can, I can't
This I swear
My honesty's holding me back
I can be the one
That I've been running from
Take advantage

Psyche myself up so I can
I can be the that I've been running from
