Who Are You?

Kathryn Calder

Who, who, who, who, who are you, baby?Who's that in the corner?
Is a-standing there?
Is a mystery
Who are you, baby?Where do you come from?
Where do you live?
Where do I find you?
To you my love I'll giveI'm trying to find you
Since I've seen you in my dreams
I wanna know
Are things as they seem?My heart
Is waiting for you to approach me
My life
Is in need of you so desperatelyWho is in the corner?
Who is a-standing there?
Who is a mystery
Who are you, baby?Ooh, you look so lovely
Ooh, you look so good
I just wanna know
Who are you, baby?Now that I've found you
Every thing's alright
So come on closer
So I can hold you tightNo need to worry
I'll take good care of you
So tell me, baby
Am I the one you choose?I know
It's clear that I don't want nobody else
Always
And forever my love will be yours, yeahWho is in the corner?
Who is a-standing there?
Who is a mystery
Who are you, baby?Ooh, you look so lovely
Ooh, you look so good
I just wanna know
Who are you, baby?'Coz no one knows
(Who are you, baby?)
What's your name?
Where you come from'Coz no one knows
(Who are you baby?)
The mystery

Surrounding you and meWho is in the corner?
Who is a-standing there?
Who is a mystery
Who are you, baby?Ooh, you look so lovely
Ooh, you look so good
I just wanna know
Who are you, baby?Who is in the corner?
Who is standing there?
Is that mystery?
Who are you, baby?Ooh, you look so lovely
Ooh, you look so good
I just wanna know
Who are you, baby?Who is in the corner?
Who s a-standing there?
Who is a mystery
Who are you, baby?Who is in the corner?
Who is standing there?
Who is a mystery
Who are you, baby?
