Rolento

Chicosci

Not even one thing
Makes me anticipate the sight of you
Stepping on people is an art for you
It takes me away
Each day
You revel in your ability to shine
Your only fucking kingdom is inside your mind
It takes you away
So you burnYou won't ever escape my stare
Piercing you like
A million needles
Why don't you stay for a while
Why don't you stay for a whileIt means everything
You embrace the gold that you amassed
Little did you know it was only glass
It shatters then brings pain
I let myself be amused by
The look I found in your eyes
It takes me away
Then you burn
