

Milk And Honey

Embrace

I've had better days
Days when the milk and the honey
 It poured into me, yeah
 And I've had better times
 When I was up on my feet
 And not down on my knees, yeah
 Now I want me and my
To go where there's milk and there's honey
 And take what we need, yeah
 Across that finish line
We'll see that we're running for nothing with
 No one to beat, yeah
 And every day I feel the same thing
That you and I know we'll find our way again
We are all on the same road if you understand
 Let's do what we can
 And I've had better times
Times when the milk and the honey
 It poured like a stream, yeah
 And right before my eyes
 People were giving into need
 And not into greed, yeah
 And every day I feel the same thing
That you and I, we will find our way again
We are all on the same road if you understand
 Let's do what we can
 That's why I say a prayer for you now
 I'll say another prayer for you and me
And though I know we'll never hear the answer
 I'll say another prayer for you and me
 And so I'll say another prayer for you now
 I'll say another prayer for you and me
And though I know we'll never hear the answer
 I'll say another prayer for you and me, and me
 And every day I feel the same thing
That you and I know we'll see those days again
We are all on the same road if you understand
 Let's do what we can
 And I've had better days

Days when the milk and the honey
It poured into me, yeah, yeah
