

Trickster

David Usher

I'm a trickster burn so brightly
I still hate you motherfuckers everyone
Wrapped in glory bound so tightly
I still need you even when I'm overcome
Saved by the light
Let me go on, let me go bright
To be saved by the light
Let me go on, let me go bright
I'm a trickster burned so badly
I still hate you motherfuckers everyone
Wore my sickness so politely
I can't be your everything to everyone
Void of meaning swelled just slightly
I still need you, I still need you
Gone forever so concisely
I still need you, I still need you
Saved by the light
Let me go on, let me go bright
To be saved by the light
Let me go on, let me go bright
And if you hate the world
Say I've been there and if you hate yourself
Well, don't go changing all the times
I used your body done my way
Can't say I'm sorry, ripped the gloss off
All your memories, consequences so demanding
Bruised and beaten, conscience bleeding
Sexually, sexually, sexually
Saved by the light
Let me go on, let me go bright
To be saved by the light
Let me go on, let me go bright
And I'm saved by the light
Let me go on, let me go bright
Let me go bright
