Radium Angel

Flowing Tears

if you could see where the diamonds grow or turn a stone to gold if you could heal an abandoned soul would your word be sold?if you could sing with the siren's song break the Chinese Wall and if you could speak with the devil's tongue bring Babylon to fallhide where stars have gone down watch the eyes in the face of God mind their light at sundown use the arms in the grace of Godif you could see where the diamonds grow or turn a soul to stone and if you could be just the fool next door say would you long for more?hide where stars have gone down watch the eyes in the face of God
use the arms in the grace of Godyour eyes will turn the holy way deny the war forever we build our walls to keep us sane and out of love we sail
