

Bless You Child

Bette Midler

Bless you child
You suffer, you're human, you sin, you fail
You love, you hate, you ail
You hunger, you lust, you deceive
You trust, you disbelieve
Bless you for your weakness
Bless you for your strength
Bless you for that smile that is so hard to trace
Ooh, bless you child, bless you child
You wander, you come home
You can't survive this world alone
You deny, you admit
You start, you can't quit
Bless you for your weakness
Bless you for your strength
Bless you for that smile that is so hard to trace
Ooh, bless you child, bless you child
Sometimes an ending is the best place to start

Bless yourself, bless your heart
Bless yourself, bless your heart
Bless you for your weakness
Bless you for your strength
Bless you for that smile that is so hard to trace
Ooh, bless you child, bless you child
Oh please, yeah
Bless you child
I say now, I say now
I know it's true
Bless yourself, bless your heart
Bless yourself, bless your heart
Bless yourself, bless your heart
Oh please
Bless yourself, bless your heart
Bless you child
Bless you child
I know it's true
