

Feel Alright

Death By Unga Bunga

Well, I feel alright,
Yeah, I feel alright.
When I got up this frosty morning
I knew my day would be shining bright.

'Cause I love you girl,
Yeah I love you girl.
If you leave me for another
I'll be the saddest man in the world.

Ever since I met you, baby
You have made my whole world crazy.
The tables will turn, and I'll feel blue,
But still I know that I'll love you.

Feel alright
Yeah, I feel alright
When I got up this frosty morning
I knew my day would be shining bright.

Ouh
