

Eleven

Oh! Dee

I just can't seem to blend
    Into society
I have no hope for this dim
    Simplicity of law and order
By whose rules I see no rhyme in the reason

I hold no hope for this holy treason
    Of love and so soft
    By whose standards
They tell me, they tell me
Who are they, who is they
