Looks Like Love

NEEDTOBREATHE

Take another step
Don't give up on me just yet
We could take a chance
We could find a child's romance
At least we'd love until we can'tI wont run when it looks like love
I won't hide beneath the fear
Of how my past has come undone
I wont run when it looks like love
I can't spend another night alone
Regretting what I've done
So, I won't runThe breeze can only be
When she overcomes the heat
Our hearts can only shake
When there's risk that they could break
That's a chance that I will takeSo, I wont run when it looks like love
I won't hide beneath the fear
Of how my past has come undone
I wont run when it looks like love
Cause I can't spend another night alone
Regretting what I've done
So, I won't runWhoa whoa whoa
Whoa whoa whoaRaise your head
It's time to say
Those words that I have left unsaid
I've slept through the sunrise
And I turned way every time it got brightSo, I wont run when it looks like love
I won't hide beneath the fear
Of how my past has come undone
And I wont run when it looks like love
Cause I can't spend another night alone
Regretting what I've done
So, I won't runWhoa whoa whoa
Whoa whoa whoaRaise your head
It's time to say
Those words that I have left unsaid
I've slept through the sunrise
And I turned way every time it got bright
