

The Addict

Lauren Hoffman

As a willowy tendril curls from my lip
I think to myself 'this is it
Just one more breath of your fragrant death
Before I quit 'In the haze of your gaze I teeter and sway
Nothing compares with this
But I've quit you before and I'll do it again
My deadly friend I come apart at the seams and very bone screams
But still I deny the call
After all, my will is strong
But not for long 'cause I'm addicted to this
Your venomous kiss
I'm addicted to this
In the haze of your gaze I teeter and sway
Nothing compares with this
But I've quit you before and I'll do it again
My deadly friend
I'm addicted to this
Your venomous kiss
I'm addicted to this
