

Riot On Broadway

The Living End

Pirate stations in the harbor
Sending a message to the wireless
A warning to all tonight
There'll be no remorse tonight
The flag is burning as we speak So when the lights go out
You'll hear them scream and shout Riot on Broadway
Lights out on the town
Riot on Broadway
Anger burns the city to the ground Secrets told and fears revealed
Peace is cheap and a smile's a steal
So the world lost its beat
The world lost its feet
Passed by while everyone was sleeping So when the lights go out
You'll hear them scream and shout Well, we won't run anymore, won't run
We won't run anymore
But we'll scream and shout
Riot! Riot! Well, we won't run anymore, won't run
We won't run anymore
But we'll scream and shout
Riot! Riot!
