You Can Come Over

Brandy Clark

You can come over
You can sit on the back porch
We can take a walk
When it gets colder
You can climb in my car
Yeah, we can talk
Sit up all night if you like
I just can't let your restless feet
Find my front stepsIt'd be too easy
To throw open that door
And go where we've gone
Too many times before
You'd stay just long enough
To leave me again
So you can come over
But you can't come inI'd put on that record
You'd give me that look
Oh, you know the one
Boy, I can betcha
By the end of that first verse
The damage would be done
'Cause one glass of wine always leads to two
When it comes to me and youIt'd be too easy
To throw open that door
And go where we've gone
Too many times before
You'd stay just long enough
To leave me again
So you can come over
But you can't come in
