

The Majority

Duff McKagan

You call me the mean man
You point your finger at me
Having problems with authority
    In every major city
    And it's so easy for you
    The majority, the majority
    And there's no peace for you
    The majority
    Your white housewives
    And your money-sucking friends Don't need you to be I'll be me to the end
    And it's so easy for you
    The majority, the majority
    And there's no peace for you
You got to think about your children
    Fuck bureaucracy
    Take the weight off your shoulders
    We're not the public enemy Can't you see, can't you see
    You call me the mean man
        I say you call me the mean man
        And it's so easy for you,
        the majority, the majority
        And there's no peace for you
        Your white housewives
        And your money-sucking friends Don't need you to be cause I'll be me to the end Got to think about the children, think think about the children
You got to think about the children
