

Between Here And The Front Door

Brandon Rhyder

You've been waltzing in and out of this life for so long its getting to be old hat
I bet you never thought that you could ever go so wrong
But right now that's where you're at, It's time to face the cold hard fact

CHORUS

Between here and the front door
You better think of something, think of something real fast
I ain't stopping you anymore
You're about to say something that you can't take back
So there's nothing I can do but draw a line down the middle
Of the living room floor, and it's all going down between here and the front door
Well you're doing it again, changing colors with the wind
Well baby get it understood
If you're gonna go, go but if you're gonna stay, stay
But this time you're staying for good, hey I'd help you if I could

CHORUS

This is where it happens, this it where it gets real
I don't want to lose you, you know how I feel
