

My Friend

Anouk

What's the matter my friend?
Can you tell me why?
You say there's nothing on your mind
Please stop telling lies
As long as you're lying
I can't ease your mind
No sense in hiding
It's all in your eyes
No need to hide
You can't tell me lies
No sense in hiding
It's all in your eyes
'Cause I ain't happy, man
Until I see you smile
Till I see the spark back in your eyes
I can tell you why
'Cause as long as you're smiling
I'll hit a high
No sense in hiding

It's all in you eyes
No need to hide
You can't tell me lies
No sense in hiding
It's all in your eyes
What's the matter, baby?
What's the matter, baby?
What's the matter now?
'Cause I ain't happy
Unless I see you smile
Unless I see you smile
Tell me, what's the matter, man?
What's the matter, baby?
What's the matter now?
'Cause I ain't happy
Unless I see you smile
Unless I see you smile, baby
What's the matter, man?
What's the matter, baby?
