Miles And Decibels

Chunk! No, Captain Chunk!

Today I've got all that I hope for Everything
No matter what you think, I'm never falling down
And now I know that there's something more
Something more
I'm leaving your high tide, 'till the colours drownThe only thing that get's me fine
Is the one you've lost
How can you live your life right, waiting for the green light?I gave my minor going through the night
Will we come back?
Will I come back?
No home just roadside
Every single mile keeps me alive
Keeps me aliveAnd if you're looking up at night
You'll surely see the next city lights
This party takes me
So fill your heart with caffeine
Here is the life we all lead
Is what we make ofI don't take anything for granted
Granted
But there's no reason why
Stop running around
'Cause I know I'm where I should be
Should be
Where as I know my time, travelling town to townI feel so tired but proud at the same time
More than I think
And I believe in what tomorrow brings
A brand new dayAnd if you're looking up at night
You'll surely see the next city lights
This party takes me
So fill your heart with caffeine
Here is the life that we all lead
Is what we make ofAnd if you're looking up at starry nights
You'll surely see the next city lights and this is what we live for (It's what we live for)
So fill your heart with caffeine
Here is the life we all lead and this is what we're made of (It's what we live for)And if you're looking up at night you're surely to see the next city lights
And if you're looking up at night you're surely to see the next city lights
So fill your heart with caffeine here is the life we all lead

And if you're looking up at night you're surely to see the next city lights
