

Chain Reaction

Eric Bibb

She's a devout, he's a sinner
I'm ordinary an' everything in between Bein' clever, pointin' fingers
From a distance so easily
Makes me wanna holler like
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh-ooh
When I see ya, I see me
Different sides of the same ol' street(Chorus)
If we all decide, we can start a chain reaction
Open up your mind - let's embrace the imperfection
True hearts don't lie - inside we're all connected
'S not too late - to change! You're big country, small city
Or just fightin' for a space to breathe
There's a girl on the sidelines
There's a boy who's way in too deep
It makes me wanna holler like
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh-ooh
When I see ya, I see me
Different branches of the same ol' tree(Chorus)
If we all decide, we can start a chain reaction
Open up your mind - let's embrace the imperfection
True hearts don't lie - inside we're all connected
'S not too late - to change! Seems the grass in greener on the other side
You can't tell 'cos you're walkin' blind
Let the walls fall, compassion rise
Up where we should go(Chorus)
If we all decide, we can start a chain reaction
Open up your mind - let's embrace the imperfection
True hearts don't lie - inside we're all connected
'S not too late...Start a chain reaction
Start a chain reaction inside we're all connected
'S not too late - to change!
