Eat Some More

Alice Cooper

Sixty million tons of meat
Spoiling in the stinkin' heat
Train loads full of moldy bread
Millions will still go unfedAcres full of dying wheat
Burning brightly at our feet
A billion tons of roasted fish
Some with nothing on their dishWe can't see, we're going blind
We're just dying on the vine
We're all sinking from the weight
Open wide and salivateDo you like the taste?
Stuff it in your face
Its not nice to waste
We're not happy 'til we're chokingSo we eat some more
Throw up on the floor
Go back to the store
We're so hungry, so patheticLots of melting cheddar cheese
Spreading instant meat disease
Rotting veggies on the ground
Where little hungry kids are foundWorms in fruit an ugly sight
They're begging for a single bite
Our garbage dumps are mountains high
While other people sadly dieWe can't see, we're going blind
We're just dying on the vine
We're all sinking from the weight
Open wide and salivateDo you like the taste?
Stuff it in your face
Its not nice to waste
We're not happy 'til we're chokingSo we eat some more
Throw up on the floor
Go back to the store
We're so hungry, so patheticWe can't see we're going blind
We're just dying on the vine
We're all sinking from the weight
Open wide and salivateDo you like the taste?
Stuff it in your face
Its not nice to waste
We're not happy 'til we're chokingSo we eat some more
Throw up on the floor
Go back to the store

We're so hungry, so pathetic
