Fallen Rock Zone

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Who do you see standing beside you?
Your shadow's me and you are mine
What do you want, you sick fucking pervert
I'll hunt you down for all of timeA fallen rock zone, a broken back bone
I want to hear you scream into your cell phone
You're just a traitor, eleventh grader
A cyber sex addicted masturbatorCowardly punk, you make me nauseous
Misguided fool, you have no balls
Stalking young girls, preying on weakness
Bent on a life with bars for wallsA fallen rock zone, a broken back bone
I want to hear you scream into your cell phone
You're just a traitor, eleventh grader
A cyber sex addicted masturbatorA fallen rock zone, stealing my tone
I want to hear you scream into your cell phone
You're just a traitor, eleventh grader
A cyber sex addicted masturbatorYeah, we've all seen it before
You seen how people just hunt and prey on women
The next time you see a guy put his hands on a girl
And she don't want him to put his hands on her
You tell that guy he's a punk, you tell him he's a fuckin' punkA fallen rock zone, a broken back bone
I want to hear you scream into your cell phone
You're just a traitor, eleventh grader
A cyber sex addicted masturbatorA fallen rock zone, stealing my tone
I want to hear you scream into your cell phone
You're just a traitor, eleventh grader
A cyber sex addicted masturbatorA fallen rock zone, a broken back bone
I want to hear you scream into your cell phone
You're just a traitor, eleventh grader
A cyber sex addicted masturbatorA fallen rock zone, stealing my tone
I want to hear you scream into your cell phone
You're just a traitor, eleventh grader
A cyber sex addicted masturbator
