Compulsion

Sayyadina

All the love you stole
All the love you saw
Exposing you but I am torn
Dark spell, I crave you so
I wanna live but you just won't let me go
We laid up there, in stars
Woke up in the storm
Am I yours? I'm unsure
And dark spell, you cast me so
I wanna live but you just won't leave me alone
Oh, I'm
And the wheel keeps turning
But I can't get enough
And the flame keeps burning
But I surrender love, oh yeah
They say the eyes are like

A window to the soul
I ain't so sure, I see through yours
And my borders are broken wrong
I just can't protect and protect them no more
Yeah, and the wheel keeps turning
But I can't get enough
And the flame keeps burning
But I surrender love, oh yeah
Turn your back on another world
Promise yourself never again
Oh yeah, love
And the wheel keeps turning
But I can't get enough
And the sun keeps burning
And I surrender love
