

The Only You

Cory Branan

You got another boy I hear he looks a lot like me
Doesn't come with some kind of guarantee
Well I got me another girl
She looks like you at twenty... three
While she sleeps I trace the places that your tattoos used to be We don't gotta lie, have you ever known
Us to take the night, lying down alone
I don't wanna try
Was hoping you were home
Hoping this is still your phone(chorus)
When I get lonely, sure she'll do
But you're the only you We were never very smart, we were sticking to our guns
We knew we had it up babe, we knew we were the ones
Forever barely starts, then suddenly someone's
Saying all it said and done(chorus)
When I get lonely, sure she'll do
But you're the only you I sprayed our names across the bridge
So the whole damn town would know
That bridge is gone
But some recall that what's his face hearts so and so
And so it goes... and so it goes(chorus)
But when I get lonely, sure she'll do
But you're the only when I get lonely, I make do
But you're the only you You got another boy I hear he looks a lot like me
