

Not Bad Luck

Taylor Hawkins & The Coattail Riders

Don't believe the writing on the wall
Instigators love to see you fall
Get what you need, just shoot from the hipThe truth is what you get Sometimes it seems to all belong
Complicated doesn't make it wrongNo need to enlighten me
The words shine right through your eyesIt's not bad luck
You give as good as you get
It's so easy to seeIt's not bad luck
You give as good as you get
Doesn't matter to me
It's so easy to seeEveryone's a stranger in the end
You can be a loner and a friend
Get what you need, get to my headThe wounded and the dead
'Cause I could see them all day long
Waiting for the ending to beginYou keep on reminding me
That you've got nothing to hideIt's not bad luck
You give as good as you get
It's so easy to meIt's not bad luck
You give as good as you get
Doesn't matter to meIt's not bad luck
You give as good as you get
It's so easy to meIt's not bad luck
You give as good as you get
Doesn't matter to me
It's so easy to meDon't believe the writing on the wall
