Healthy Sick Bastard

MONORAL

This could be real
Well, how do I heal
I'm so mean
Now that I have nothing to cleanMy time will rust
Cause I really feel
It's OK
You kill and nothing is freeI feel like a pole without a sign
How dare you say I feel just fine
It's been two years, should I tell you now
In what a mess you've left me, why?
I feel like a pole without a sign
How dare you say I feel just fine
It's been two years, should I tell you now
In what a mess you've left me, why?Menace fulfills
And help you conceal
Taste my fate It'll make you puke in disgrace
I'll let you win
Cause I really feel
The lies I've trusted made me see what I seeI feel like a pole without a sign
How dare you say I feel just fine
It's been two years, should I tell you now
In what a mess you've left me, why?
I feel like a pole without a sign
How dare you say I feel just fine
It's been two years, should I tell you now
In what a mess you've left me, why?You're, you're, you're, you're so warmI feel like a pole without a sign
How dare you say I feel just fine
It's been two years, should I tell you now
In what a mess you've left me, why?
I feel like a pole without a sign
How dare you say I feel just fine
It's been two years, should I tell you now
In what a mess you've left me, why?
