Jack Johnson

Saturday morning and it's time to go
One day these could be the days but who could have known
Loading in the back of a pickup truck
Riding with the boys and pushing the luckSinging songs loud on the way to the game
Wishing all the things could still be the same
Chinese home runs over the backstop
Kakua on the ball and soda pop wellWe used to laugh a lot but only because we thought
That everything good always would remain
Nothing's gonna change, there's no need to complainSunday morning and it's time to go
Been raining all night so everybody knows
Over to the field for tackle football
Big hits, big hats, yeah, give me the ball
Rain is pouring, touchdown scoring
Keep on rolling, never boring
Karma, karma, karma chameleon
We're talking kinda funny from helium, yeahWe used to laugh a lot but only because we thought
That everything good always would remain
Nothing's gonna change, there's no need to complainMonday morning and it's time to go
Wet trunks and schoolbooks and sand on my toes
Do anything you can to dodge the bus-stop blues
Like driving a pa diddle with a burnt-out fuseWell, my best friend Kimi wants to go with you
So meet her by the sugar mill after school
My best friend Kimi wants to go with you
Meet her by the sugar mill after school
We used to laugh a lot but only because we thought
That everything good always would remainWe used to laugh a lot but only because we thought
That everything good always would remain
Everything good always would remain
