Crash

Citipointe Live

Citipointe live

I
I lift my eyes towards the light gazed upon your face

Arms are wide, and head is high enveloped by your grace

Bridge:

For I once was lost, but then you found me

Then you found me

Chorus:

Now I run, run, run into you
With your arms are wide
I crash right into your love
And give you my life
For nothing compares to you
You are the only true
For nothing compares to you
My God.

Yeah

(We worship you Lord)

II
I had walked a lonely path then you call my name,
Covered by unfailing life, you meet me more than half away

Bridge:

For I once was lost but then you found me,
Then you found me

Chorus:

Now I run, run, run into you

With your arms are wide
I crash right into your love
And give you my life
For nothing compares to you
You are the only true
For nothing compares to you
My God.

Yeah

Hope has bear restored love
Has conquered all now
Your kingdom all around me
And wonder joy has said its whole grace
Come take control life
Been washed in your redeeming power.

Chorus:

I run, run, run into you
With your arms are wide
I crash right into your love
And give you my life
And nothing compares to you
You are the only true
For nothing compares to you
My God.

Now I run, run, run into you
With your arms are wide
I crash right into your love
And give you my life
For nothing compares to you
You are the only true
For nothing compares to you
My God.

Yeah
