Thirsty

Hank Williams, Jr.

Bartender put a little whiskey in my water
Looks like it's gonna be another all nighter
Hope that barrel ain't got no bottom
Gonna keep drinkin' as long as you got 'em
I been workin' all week out in the heat
I got a cotton mouth I need to drown outDehydration leads to a lot of libation
Gets you good vibrations, starts up a celebration
This inebriation sure is gonna hurt me
But every now and then you just get a little thirstyLittle Miss Prissy's sippin' martinis
Boys on the bar stools shootin' down whiskey
Cowboy's chuggin' on an ice cold beer
The country boys got a jar of somethin' clear
Some girl and her mom got a Jaager Bomb
They just dropped it on me now I can't seeDehydration leads to a lot of libation
Gets you good vibrations, starts up a celebration
This inebriation sure is gonna hurt me
But you know every now and then you just get pretty thirstyAlright y'all ready?
Set 'em up, Joe
Ready, aim
Drink, drink, drink, drink, drinkDehydration leads to a lot of libation
Gets you good vibrations, starts up a celebration
This inebriation sure is gonna hurt me
But every now and then you just get a little thirsty
Every now and then you just get a little thirsty
