The Rising

Trivium

[Solo : Jason]And the earth begins to shake
A cacophony of roaring
Anxiety growing
Cheers to leaving this mortal life behind
Sweat begins its downpour
A roit we stand for
The blackout foreshadows the chaos
So raise your voices with me
And sing this song of unity
So raise your hands up with me
And hold this moment eternally
[Solo: Jason]Like a rift opened in the sky
Through fire, pulses and lightning
While thunderous sounds ring

Chanting hymns to leave life's troubles behind
This time shared together
Is just so much better
Than life could ever offer
So raise your voices with me
And sing this song of unity
So raise your hands up with me
And hold this moment enternally
[Solo : Corey]So raise your voices with me
And sing this song of unity
So raise your hands up with me
And hold this moment enternally
[Solo : Matt]
