Eleonore

Fury In The Slaughterhouse

Oh Eleonore
You came the long way home
Coming with a dream
And going back aloneOh Eleonore
You have left this place
So there's no warm embrace
Just a short helloThen turn around and go
Oh EleonoreOh Eleonore
Friends are hard to find
And you've left yours behind
You don't known where to stay
But that's the price you payOh Eleonore
It shouldn't bother me
You wanted to be free
I've known it before
Since you've closed the door
Oh EleonoreAnd if you turn around you see
That there is no one else but me
I guess we both know what's best
So forget about the restOh Eleonore
You came the long way home
Coming with a dream
And going back alone
