I Get The Feeling

Edna Mcgriff

I get the feeling that I've been here before
Saying all these things to you
I get the feeling that I fell through that door
Coming down with deja-vu
There's no emotion, nothing at all
You don't even know my name
I get the notion that you don't recall
So here we go and here we go
Here we go again
It's no good saying that you've
Never been in love before
No good explaining that you've
Never been in love before
And no good denying, I've seen
Them coming back for more
I know you're lying, baby 'cause your name
Is written on that door
Oh, baby
I get the feeling that you've been here before
Saying all these things to me
I get the feeling that I'm just a chore
You don't give your love for free
There's no excuses, nothing to say
You just play those little games
I get the feeling it would turn out this way
So here we go, here we go
Here we go again
And your love has given me
What I never, never had before
But the way you're living
I just never, never know the score
Oh, I'm though with trying
And I say I can take no more
But you know I'm lying baby
When you hear me knocking at that door
Oh girl
I get the feeling by the look on your face
Could be the right time but it sure is the wrong place
I get the feeling that nothing I say

Is gonna change a single thing
Gonna make you come away
Oh, I get the feeling
Oh, I got the feeling
Here we go again
Here we go again
Here we go
I get the feeling
Yeah, get the feeling
No, no, no, tell me now, now
Never been in love before
Don't try tell me
Don't try tell me about it, oh
Never been in love before
I don't believe it darling, no
