Fly Far Away

Exit 159

She thought she could fly with a 5 year old heart.
She closed her eyes, jumped and broke her arm that day.
Never really cared about the guys that much.
Never really known if she was ever loved she said that day.
I said No Way.
Let's go. Let's go somewhere.
Let's go. Let's go somewhere.
We could take a train down to Mexico.
We could write our name where no one knows it's queer.
And every now and then I know it seems a little tough.
And every now and then I know you want to give up, but don't.
I'm here. I know it's weird.
Let's go. Let's go somewhere.
Let's go. Let's go somewhere.
Let's go. Let's go somewhere.
Let's go. Let's go somewhere.
Let's go. Let's go somewhere.
Let's go. Let's go somewhere yeah.
She thought she could fly with a 5 year old heart.
She closed her eyes, jumped and broke her arm that day.
[spoken: Is that cool?]
