Hungry

Dotan

Hit up the bottom, hearts will melt like ice as the lights keep falling, makes you feel so small again as we walk in circles, the blind leading the blind no way of hiding, oh, our heart is all we've got I'm hungry for you, my love, so come out and rescue me love is just not enough out in this war of needsdrag your heart to the place where it belongs while it's underwater, where my love will fill your bones the clouds are shaking, and your palms begin to crack hands against your eyes, see this love is all we've got
love is just not enough out in this war of needs it's a hive of honeybees trapped inside of our skin growing faster, stinging harder till we all give inoh, oh, oh oh oh oh oh, oh, oh oh oh oh
oh, oh, oh oh oh oh
oh, oh, oh oh oh ohI'm hungry for you, my love love is just not enough I'm hungry for you, my love love is just not enoughI'm hungry for you, my love, so come out and rescue me love is just not enough out in this war of needs
if love is just not enough out in this war of needsI'm hungry for you, my love
love is just not enough
growing faster, stinging harder till we all give in ey yeah yeah yeah
