

Die For You

Falling In Reverse

[Verse 1]

I admit, [?]

Words are here to touch me like I want to
The skies will bleed, come follow me, your puppet
I will never trust you cuz our loyalty is dead! [Chorus]

I would have died for you

I've put myself hanging on your words

And it goes to show how bad it hurts

For what it's worth

Some things are better left untold [Verse 2]

You won't destroy me! This is your warning!

I have a dark side! I have an omen

[?] are sacred, 1000 years of torment

Face up like a monster, forever like no other [Chorus] [Verse 3]

Ah, pick it up! I know lots of [?] too

Believe in what we're fighting for

Your lying soul will burn for [?]

[?] burning efforts slow

Kill the person that you call your father

And your mother, banishing that race

That with the horror taught you of the dishonor

The world as we know it is a muthafuckin' battleground! [Chorus]
