Chorus

Forget me not, when I'm gone

I was born, born to be

Born to be remembered

Born to be remembered

Verse 1

Like the very first kiss, the feeling on your lips

The very first time that we got that fucking high

Days just like this, we will never forget no no oh But sometimes I wonder why I was given this life

Roller coaster bumps on a rocky fucking ride

But the voices in my head said we're here for a reason yeah yeah

Pre-chorus

And you might call me crazy, but I'm not that crazy

I'm just lost. Don't we all get lost?

And when you call me different I'm grateful I'm different

I know my life won't be a loss

Chorus

Forget me not, when I'm gone

I was born, born to be

Born to be remembered

Born to be remembered

2x

Verse 2

We were all given a path, but God forgot the map

Some people wanna live and others live to give

Oh you know who you are and I'll never forget you no no And now we're out here driving, guided by the stars

Might feel lost but at least we know who we are

Yeah we were born to be remembered

Pre-chorus

And you might call me crazy, but I'm not that crazy

I'm just lost. Don't we all get lost?

And when you call me different I'm grateful I'm different

I know my life won't be a loss

Chorus

Forget me not, when I'm gone

I was born, born to be

Born to be remembered

2x

Rap

Who ever said we live once
I pray to prove them all wrong
Yeah we'll be missed not forgot
But I'll be back when I'm gone 'Cause every life has a reason
On our knees praying for something to believe in Legend stains the memory like blood stains the bed
Ink stains the paper with a message and it says That we were born to be loved
Yeah we were born to be free
We're not born to be slaves
We're born to make history So whatever your path,
Don't tread lightly
And whatever your gift,
Use that shit wisely
