Beautiful Child

Eurythmics

Something that I said
Made you wear a frown
The way you hang your head
Has made the tears come downBut don't you wear a sigh
My beautiful childYou know it doesn't burn
When you touch the sun
So don't be concerned
My golden oneYou're gonna reach the sky
Fly beautiful childThere is no other place
The human race
Is running out of spaceThere is no better love
And human love
Is what it takesAnd I'll be at your side
When you're falling down
You'll be feeling fine
When you hit the groundSo don't slip away
Stay beautiful childYeah I'm a beautiful child
I'm a beautiful child
You know beautiful child
Oh! A beautiful child
Hey! Beautiful child
Oh I love you beautiful child
Hey I'm a beautiful childBeautiful
Beautiful
Beautiful
