Who's On the Line

Device

Never thought you'd call me
Never thought you'd care enough
to call me
Never thought I'd hear from you
Never thought
I'd touch your voice again
When you left me
I was crazy
Wild and crazy
Don't you think I haven't looked At everything I did wrong
And shot myself down for it

Who's on the line?
You can't be serious
You're not making sense
Who's on the line?
You can't be serious
I lose my defence

And then you told me over and over and over and over and over again
All you wanted
was a little bit of love Smack bang
in the middle of your heart
Just put it there
That's all you wanted
Never thought you'd call me
Never thought you'd care enough
to call me
Never thought I'd hear from you
Never thought
I'd touch your voice again
