

I Man a African

Max Romeo

I man a African, dont call I Jamaican
I man a African, dont call I Jamaican
I man a African, dont call I Jamaican
I man a African For how can I give up a continent?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
For only an island
No, no I man a African, dont call I Jamaican
I man a African, thats if you call I Jamaican
I man a African, dont call I Jamaican
I man a African Look why you are do to judge your children
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Turn around and say mi a your brother
Yeah I man a African
Dont call I Jamaican
I man a African
I man a African Smile though you brought it against the world
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Man, man and, man and
Nobody enough far, yeah I man a African, dont call I Jamaican
I man a African, screw if you call I Jamaican
I man a African, because if you call I Jamaican
I man a African, yeah, yeah, yeah I man a African, dont call I Jamaican
I man a African, screw if you call I Jamaican
I man a African, dont call I Jamaican Cursing man to praise his land
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
The devil, madman have the plan
No I man a African, dont call I Jamaican
I man a African

Songwriters

A. Smith; Boswell Winston George Published by

ROYNET MUSIC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>