I Can Prove You Wrong

John Michael Montgomery

I know he gave you every reason
To lose your faith in love
Give me the chance I'll find the pieces
To a heart that's given upYou say there's nothing I can do
But no one's ever too far gone
It's a heartache talking when
You say you'll never love again
And I can prove you wrongI can prove you wrong
I know I can make you see
That you're right where you belong
When you're right here with meIf I could wrap these arms around you
You won't even know he's gone
But if you're still afraid
Love always ends that way
I can prove you wrongI can show you what I'm saying
Is so much more than empty words
And if you want me here I'm staying
But I'll walk away if you preferA broken heart takes time to heal
And right now yours is not that strong
You say there's no one left for you
But if you want me to
I can prove you wrongI can prove you wrong
I know I can make you see
That you're right where you belong
When you're right here with meIf I could wrap these arms around you
You won't even know he's gone
But if you're still afraid
Love always ends that way
I can prove you wrong
But if you're still afraid
Love always ends that way
I can prove you wrong
