

Pickup Truck

Shane Yellowbird

me and my truck like to hit the streets see just how many pretty girls we can meet after 2 AM on the weekend there was a 9 out of 10 standing outside the bar
"My name is Shane, how do you like me so far?" was my pickup line It's been working since '99 She didn't even say a word, turned on her heel and flipped me the bird lately we don't have the affect we used to have on the girlsme and my old pickup truck these days we dont pick up much but there's chrome on her hood man we're looking so good when we're looking for love i know we'll be rolling again someday soon somewhere around the bend i know we'll have better luck in my pickup truck9 out of 10 were still looking at me I asked her, "Are you from Tennessee 'cuz baby, you're the only 10 I see." She smiled back much to my surprise
"I need a map 'cuz I'm lost in your eyes" was the last thing I said before her purse hit my head.
Now we're sitting here all alone Me and Chevy at the side of the road wondering how our dynamic duo went so wrongbut me and my old pickup truck
these days we dont pick up much Maybe pink furry dice and a can of Old Spice are making us too hot to touch
i know we'll be rolling again someday soon
i know we'll have better luck - me and my pickup truckmaybe we need to give this thing just one more try bigger tires and a new paint job with flames on the side would really pimp out our rideme and my old pickup
but i know in a while, we'll be driving in style crawling on out of this truck i'm sure we'll be rolling again someday soon
somewhere around the bend
i know we'll have better luck - me and my pickup truck just a couple of fix 'er ups in my pickup truck
