

Observe the Skies

British Sea Power

You were an English Lord, you wanted just rewards
You wanna go all the way
But it's way too late now, now You had a heavy heart
You had a heavy sigh
You wanna know the reasons why
Sit back, observe the sky Let's watch the nebulae explode
Let's watch the nebulae implode
As dark out of the light unfolds
As darkness out of light unfolds
We'll watch the nebulae implode Oh, but they never did and they never will
So we stand against 'em still
Them and all their bruiser mates It's in between their eyes
You know it's gray and lies
It comes as such a big surprise
Lay back, observe the skies Let's watch the nebulae explode
Let's watch the nebulae implode
As darkness out of light unfolds
As light out of the dark unfolds
We'll watch the nebulae implode Oh, but I don't stop, don't wanna talk about it
And I won't say
Are you ready for Valhalla?
Are you ready for the dancehall? Let's watch the nebulae explode
Let's watch the nebulae implode
As darkness out of light unfolds
As light out of the dark unfolds Let's watch the nebulae implode
Let's watch the nebulae implode
As darkness out of light unfolds
As light out of the dark unfolds
We'll watch the nebulae explode
