The Healer

Bad Llama

Just throw it away,
All that you thought that you saw,
Forget all the pain,
And this icy decor,

silence speaks volumes to me,

It's rhetorical,
Deaf ears and words fallen,
Astronomical,
If you should be chosen,

Maybe everything isn't as it seems?

I've made all my mistakes,
It was my mistake to make,
Lost inbetween,
Our chemicals,
One day we'll rise and then we'll fall,
It was my mistake to make

Conversations fade,
The green bleed into blue,
Someone's therapist,
Knows all there is to you,

Maybe everything's not so black and white?

You're born into death,
You're Faithless and faltered,
With your bitter mind,
Splattered up the alter,

If it's my time I'll be more inclined

I've made all my mistakes,
It was my mistake to make,
Lost inbetween,

Our chemicals,
One day we'll rise and then we'll fall,
It was my mistake to make
(Tell me exactly what you mean)

Your silence haunts me
Breathing slowly
Whisper softly
Hold me closely

I made all my mistakes,
They're my mistakes to make,
Lost inbetween,
Our chemicals,
One day we'll rise and then we'll fall,
And it's my mistake
And it's my mistake

Hold me close
Hold me close.
