BAD BOYFRIEND

Spector

I'm worse than a bad boyfriend
I'm a bad artist, and I'm a bad loser
But look at the way I win
Show me a good time and I'll show you a liar
Your technology, your pills
I can't take you higherWhen you put it to the test
Everyone seems second best
To the image in your head
And you can see it coming
You can see it comingSo when you call me and say come around
I just tell you that I'm not in town, town, town, town
I'm turning myself downSo when you call me and say come around
I just tell you that I'm not in town, town, town, town
I'm turning myself downI'm a good listener, when it's just me talking
I've got a good lawyer, but nothing going on
My battery's 10 percent, let's generate content
Baby if you think you're lonely now, just wait until we're aloneIf you put it to the test
Everyone seems second best
To the image in your head
And you can see it coming
You can see it comingSo when you call me and say come around
I just tell you that I'm not in town, town, town, town
I'm turning myself downSo when you call me and say come around
I just tell you that I'm not in town, town, town, town
I'm turning myself downThe light at the end of the tunnel is a train
Life is short and full of pain
You always read the last page first
So you're ready for the worst
So you can see it coming
You can see it coming
You can see it coming
But you just keep goingSo when you call me and say come around
I just tell you that I'm not in town, town, town, town
I'm turning myself downSo when you call me and say come around
I just tell you that I'm not in town, town, town, town
I'm turning myself down
