Suicide Away

Sponge

suicide away,
another suicide away
a suicide away
another suicide away.
im looking for an open window im looking for a open door.
im trying to find a some way out im trying abut it aint no good.
if u got the guts to pull the trigger n if u got the guts you'll know the truth.
theres no excuse
theres no excuse.
theres no excuse
ooooo away
suicide away
another suicide away
suicede away
another suicide away.
i read it in a
read it like a open book read it in the sunday paper.
theres suicide everywhere you look.
if you dont have the use or imagination you dont want the youth to know the truth.
theres no excuse
theres just no use
thers just no use
aaaway
