Kirk Franklin

Spiritual

Kirk Franklin It hurts me to see you give up.

'Cause the battle is not flesh and blood.

It's all a delusion to live in confusion.

So you gotta set your mind on things above. Don't forget who's the real enemy.

And he hates you've been granted victory.

But still life feels wrong; you can't fix it on your own.

You'll never be free if you live by what you see.

So over and over and over again.

Remind yourself when your flesh wants to win.

It's not about me.

This is not my home

And everything's spiritual

Yes, it's all spiritual.

Help me to see

That I don't belong here.

'Cause I am spiritual

You make me spiritual, me.

Oh oh I, Oh, oh I, I oh I, I'm spiritual,

Oh oh I, Oh, oh I, I oh I We celebrate fortune and fame.

But tell me, does heaven know your name?

How much was the price for you to live your best life?

Tell me, did you lose much more than you gained?

So over and over and over again.

Remind yourself when your flesh wants to win.

It's not about me.

This is not my home

And everything's spiritual

Yes, it's all spiritual.

Help me to see

That I don't belong here.

'Cause I am spiritual

You make me spiritual, me.

Oh oh I, Oh, oh I, I oh I, I'm spiritual,

Oh oh I, Oh, oh I, I oh I We were meant to live forever.

Say if you want live together, forever. It's not about me, this is not my home.
