Lyrics

Here we are, we meet again
After our big fight
in the middle of the pouring rain

After all these years
Have you once thought
Why we're back to the start

We know we'll never gonna last, last, last
We'll always find a way back to you and I
Cause thousand of pieces of you
Is calling out for me yeah

And we know that we're never gonna last, last, last
We'll always find a way back to you and I
Cause thousand of pieces of you
Is calling out for me yeah

Last, last, last
Last, la la last

Last, last, last
Last, la la last

Last, last, last
Last, la la last

Last, last, last
La la la la...

Here we are, we meet again

After our big fight
in the middle of the pouring rain

After all these years
Have you once thought
Why we're back to the start

We know we'll never gonna last, last, last
We'll always find a way back to you and I
Cause thousand of pieces of you
Is calling out for me yeah

And we know that we're never gonna last, last, last
We'll always find a way back to you and I
Cause thousand of pieces of you
Is calling out for me yeah

Last, last, last
Last, la la last

Last, last, last
Last, la la last

Last, last, last
Last, la la last

Last, last, last
La la la la la...
