Highest Mountain

Seeking For Sam

I feel the cold breeze
On top of the highest mountain
I feel tipsy, my knees
But the night comes all but certain
I climbed and struggled for days
Forgot looking for the light
White turns slowly into grey
And the day removes for the night

I see the highest mountain my dear
Down my cheek runs a little tear
The clouds are filling the valley
This is my finale

I was sitting at home
The eyes staring out of the valley
Sometimes i felt alone
And thought about my ralley
On top of the highest hill
Looking down to the lowest clouds
I felt very ill looking down to all the small cows

I am searching for a stone
Calling tho i like
I was searching far up
Somewhere by the country side

I see the highest mountain my dear
Down my cheek runs a little tear
The clouds are filling the valley
This is my finale

I see the highest mountain my dear
Down my cheek runs a little tear
The clouds are filling the valley
This is my finale

I see the highest mountain my dear
Down my cheek runs a little tear
The clouds are filling the valley

This is my finale

I see the highest mountain my dear
Down my cheek runs a little tear
The clouds are filling the valley
This is my finale

I see the highest mountain my dear
Down my cheek runs a little tear
The clouds are filling the valley
This is my finale
