Better Today

Faktion

Yesterday I hit the ground
I felt so down
I let some baggage that I dont need get the Best of me
Somedays I wake up with a frown
Easily annoyed by any sound
I wish that negativity would just stay away from meToday is a new day
I'm awake and expecting so much more
This pain can't hurt no more
I washed it away
Now I'm standing at the door
The world looks better today
It's so much better todayI had no reason to feel down
For I have found that my negativity
Starts inside of me
Waiting for things to turn around
Tired, Tired of feeling bound
I wish that negativity would stay away from meI'm making the desicion to turn
My back on yesterday
Now I know I'm in control
I will make it better today
