

The Straights of Our Love

Cary Ann Hearst

If you think we're defeated and you're all out of Faith and the straights of our love you can't navigate, darlin'
put your broken heart away

If you wake up one mornin' and the tears in your eyes they fall till the rivers in your heart ran dry, darlin'
put your broken heart away

Does the time pass you by?
Slow as down in Caroline?
How many trains will it take before you're taken away?
Does that train always run on time?

I wear mine like a tattoo like an old bad luck charm till I see you with some other cowgirl on your arm, then I'll put my broken heart away
