

I Will Not Accept the Truth

Bruce Dickinson

I will not accept the truth
I will not accept the truth
I will not accept the truth
That I'll never get there no way I must not push forward, no
I must not push forward, no
I must not push forward, no
because I'll never get there
Never get there, no way I will not believe your lies
I will not believe your lies
I will not believe your lies
You say I'll never get there
Never get there, well hold on I will not accept your truth
I will not believe your lies
I will not acknowledge pain
I will survive and live again
Coming back now, rising back now
